

Please note, the following only applies to individuals who owned/contributed to an health savings account (HSA) in 2019. If your high deductible health plan/HSA started in 2020, you can ignore this memo.

The IRS has just confirmed 2019 HSA Contributions may be accepted up to the filing deadline of July 15, 2020. These are HSA contributions made with after tax dollars (not pre-tax contributions made through payroll deduction).

The delay was granted in an IRS Q&A released yesterday afternoon.
